

EDITOR

About Verse:

Verse Magazine provides the UniSA student community with the opportunity to connect, engage with one another, showcase their work and assist in skill development.

The magazine editorial team consists of a Head Editor, Editor, Communications Editor and Graphic Designer. The magazine consists solely of UniSA student work and sees a wide range of contributions in the form of poems, art, travel stories, reviews, opinion pieces and more. This is on top of regular segments including vox pops, feature artists and graduate interviews.

Six editions of verse are printed throughout the academic year. Content from the magazine, as well as addition unique content, is shared weekly through the numerous online Verse platforms.
