

University of South Australia
Student Association

Second Hand Textbook Service Terms and Conditions

*These must be accepted in order to sell a book using this service.
Once you have completed the form, please deliver it with your books to your nearest USASA counter.*

These terms and conditions outline the agreement between USASA Incorporated ABN 42 435 026 686 and the individual whose details are provided at the time of sale, herein known as “the seller”. By signing the form when submitting books for sale, the seller agrees to the following terms:

1. The sale price of the book(s) may be about 60% of the price of the equivalent new book however USASA has the sole discretion to change that price. If the seller does not agree to this pricing policy, they must not complete the drop off.
2. The seller authorises USASA to sell the seller’s books on their behalf. If the book(s) are sold USA-SA will pay the seller the selling price less 15% commission plus GST within 30 days of the book(s) being sold.
3. The books remain the property of the seller until it is sold or returned to seller, however the seller agrees to leave the book(s) with USASA for a minimum of 2 months for USASA to try and sell the book(s;) only then may the book(s) be reclaimed by the seller. If USASA emails the seller to collect the book(s) and after 10 working days the book(s) are not collected the seller forfeits ownership of the book(s) to USASA without compensation.
4. It is the seller’s responsibility to ensure that the payment method selected is appropriate for their situation and you need to keep USASA informed of any changes in your delivery address or payment details as any incorrect details result in a $25 service fee.
5. The seller agrees that they currently own or have the authority to offer the book(s) for sale by USA-SA. The seller assumes full responsibility for any liability or damage caused if they provide USASA with books that they are not authorised to provide.
6. Where a seller’s book(s) are damaged beyond repair or lost while in the possession of USASA, USA-SA has a grace period of 2 calendar months from the time the book is noticed as lost or damaged to find, repair or replace the book. If the book remains missing or irrevocably damaged after this period, USASA will pay the seller the equivalent of the amount that they would have received had the book sold.
7. The seller agrees to use the USASABooks current second-hand textbook service within the guidelines specified here, and on the USASA website.
8. Noncurrent issue book(s) are NOT accepted; if inadvertently dropped off such book(s) the seller will be emailed to collect them and if in 10 working days the book(s) are not collected the seller forfeits ownership of the book(s) to USASA without compensation.

I have read and agree to the terms and conditions.

Name:

Signature:

Date:

University of South Australia
Student Association

Second Hand Textbook Service Book Details

*These details must be filled-in to sell a book using this service.
Once you have completed the form, please deliver it with your books to your nearest USASA counter.*

Student Details

First Name: Surname:
Mobile: Student ID:
Email:

Book Details Books must be current edition.

Book Title:
Author: Course Code:
Course Name:

Book Title:
Author: Course Code:
Course Name:

Book Title:
Author: Course Code:
Course Name:

Payment Details

Pay me by Paypal

Paypal email:

OR

Pay me by direct deposit into my Australian account

Account Name:

Account Number: BSB: